DIRIGIBLE NOW CIRCLES TOKYO

A large Parseval dirigible airship hovered and circled over Tokyo, Japan, during the progress of the naval maneuvers which took place in Japan just prior to the departure of the Pacific Mail liner Persia for Honolulu and San Francisco.

One account received here from an eye witness states that the airship was manned by six naval and military officers, including Captain Masuda, who acted as captain of the airship; Naval Captain Yamashita, who acted as chief engineer; Major General Inouye and others.

At 3:07 p. m. the airship rose into the air at Tokorozawa to a height of 300 meters. Maintaining this altitude the dirigible traveled in a southeasterly direction, and arriving at Tanashi machi at 3:21 p. m., proceeded towards Nakano. At the Nakano station the crew of the airship dropped a letter which was picked up by the officials of the station. It then emerged at Yodobashi, and passing over the water reservoir, glided on to the Shinjuku detached palace, whence it traveled to the Aoyama Imperial Shrine, then towards the Aoyama Imperial Palace. From this point it proceeded to Shiba, and passing over the Advertiser office and Hibuya park proceeded to Gofukubashi, Ochanomizubashi and Itohashi, and then entering the Waseda district the aerial craft returned to Nakano.

The time spent in the circuit of Tokyo was 23 minutes. From Nakano the airship glided over the railway line and changing its course at Tanashi, safely arrived at Tokorozawa; where after making a large circuit, it descended in safety. An hour and forty minutes were required for the whole journey, the distance covered being 21 ri (or about 53 miles). This is a new record established in the Japanese aeronautic world.

Major General Inouye, one of the crew aboard the dirigible, is quoted as follows:

"At a height of 300 meters we could command a complete view of the vast plain of Musashi, dotted here and there with picturesque groves and mountains and streaked with rivers. The beauty of the sight cannot be imagined by any person who has not flown over the district. The most beautiful sights in Tokyo as seen from above were the reservoir at Yonohashi, the sea off Shinagawa, the river Sumida, etc. Within the city limits the residential quarters at Oiocho in Akasaka wood were among the most picturesque. The capital, seen from above, appeared just like a great map dotted with numerous little houses. In the commercial quarters such as Nihonbashi and Kyobashi, we could clearly make out the streets, and also recognize large public buildings and offices; but in the residential quarters the trees were so numerous that the spectacle below was somewhat dim. We looked down upon the Imperial Palace enclosure but it was so thickly wooded that we could not distinguish any object. The citizens of Tokyo appeared to be standing still in the streets instead of walking about."

It is stated that the emperor and the empress and their sons watched the flight of the airship with great interest.

The same dirigible also made a successful flight near Nakano yesterday. A long circuit of 50 miles was effected within 40 minutes. The weather being ideal, no hitch was experienced in this second experiment. During this aerial voyage Captain Masuda is reported to have taken a snapshot picture of a group of children in the playground of a school at Higashi Maruyama.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Ends Indigestion, Gas, Sourness in Five Minutes

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.
